

Information on heritage recognition and resources

Heritage plaques

Since the 1970s, the St. Andrews Civic Trust has placed heritage recognition plaques on a number of St. Andrews buildings. The Trust has recently expanded this program and welcomes your inquiry about how to get a heritage plaque for your building. Find the details at:

<http://www.standrewscivictrust.ca/plaque-program-1>.

Some examples:

Local Heritage Place recognition

Periodically, the Town formally designates a building as a recognized Local Heritage Place that is entered in the Canadian Register of Historic Places and New Brunswick Register of Historic Places. This designation does not oblige the owner to retain the building's architectural features but does recognize its significance to the Town's heritage and encourages its conservation.

To date the Town has recognized 103 buildings as a Local Heritage Place and all are included in the current St. Andrews Heritage Properties Inventory.

If you are interested in learning more about this process, contact the Heritage Board at heritage@townofstandrews.ca

Restoration information and assistance

➤ Standards and Guidelines for the Conservation of Historic Places in Canada

In addition to the St. Andrews Heritage Handbook (see a separate page) this national-level reference on maintaining heritage sites and buildings is available on line at <http://www.historicplaces.ca/media/18072/81468-parks-s+g-eng-web2.pdf>. A copy will also soon be available in the Town Library.

➤ Heritage reference centre at the Ross Memorial Library

A permanent heritage reference centre will soon be located at the Ross Memorial Library that will include articles and publications to help heritage property owners with techniques, materials and much more to maintain and restore their heritage buildings. It will also have a reference copy of the St. Andrews Heritage Properties Inventory. Watch for a coming announcement.

➤ On-site technical assistance

The St. Andrews Civic Trust is highly knowledgeable about local heritage architecture and restoration and its members are willing to share their expertise. You can contact the Trust directly at sacivictrust@gmail.com

The Heritage Board can also share articles and reference materials on how to improve heritage window efficiency and on local sources of heritage-friendly building materials. It can be reached at heritage@townofstandrews.ca

➤ Heritage conservation incentive grants

Many municipalities offer small incentive grants for heritage maintenance and restoration projects. A similar program is planned for St. Andrews when a bylaw is adopted. Information will be available at that time.