RCS190501 Hearing of Objection - Amendment A-1 to By-law 18-01 to Regulate Vehicular Traffic in the Town of Saint Andrews

Mayor Naish asked Chris Spear, Acting Clerk if any letters of objection were received by the Town and he reported that none had been received. Mayor Naish then asked if there were any members from the public wishing to speak to this matter. There were three individuals that spoke their objections. One suggesting that the Town might consider a permitting system for individuals wishing to use their vehicles for overnight accommodation. Another individual stated that the Amendment was unnecessary and likely unenforceable. With no further presentations, Mayor Naish moved to close the floor to comments.
