 - 6.1.1. The owner or occupier of the premises, building or other structure.
 - 6.1.2. The person managing or receiving the rent for the premises, building or other structure, whether on the person’s own account or as agent or trustee of any other person.
 - 6.1.3. The person who receives the rent if the premises, building or other structure were let.
- 6.2. A notice referred to in Subsection 6.1, shall be in the form prescribed by regulation which shall:
 - 6.2.1. Be in writing.
 - 6.2.2. Be signed by the Officer.
 - 6.2.3. State the conditions in Subsection 5.1, 5.2, or 5.3 that exist.
 - 6.2.4. State what must be done to correct the condition.
 - 6.2.5. State the date before which the condition must be corrected.
 - 6.2.6. If an appeal may be brought forward under Subsection 8.1, state the date for giving notice of the appeal.

- 6.3. A notice referred to in Subsection 6.1 may be given in the following ways:
- 6.3.1. If a person to be notified is an individual:
 - 6.3.1.1. By personal delivery to the individual.
 - 6.3.1.2. By registered mail to the individual's latest know address.
 - 6.3.1.3. By posting the notice in a conspicuous place on the premises, building, or other structure.
 - 6.3.2. If the person to be notified is a corporation:
 - 6.3.2.1. By personal delivery to an officer, director or agent of the corporation or to a manager or person who appears to be in control of any office or other place of business in the Province where the corporation carries on business.
 - 6.3.2.2. By registered mail to the corporation's registered office.
 - 6.3.2.3. By posting the notice in a conspicuous place on the premises, building or other structure.
- 6.4. A notice that is posted in a conspicuous place under Subparagraph 6.3.1.3 or 6.3.2.3 shall be deemed to have been given to an individual or corporation on the day it was posted.
- 6.5. A notice given to a person referred to in Paragraph 6.1.2 or 6.1.3 shall be deemed to have been given to the owner of the premises, building or other structure.

7. EVIDENCE

- 7.1. Proof of giving notice in a manner provided for in Subsection 6.3 may be made by a certificate or an affidavit purporting to be signed by the By-Law Enforcement Officer referred to in Subsection 6.1 naming the person named in the notice and specifying the time, place and manner in which notice was given.
- 7.2. A document purporting to be a certificate under Subsection 7.1 shall be:
- 7.2.1. Admissible in evidence without proof of signature.
 - 7.2.2. Conclusive proof that the person named in the certificate received the notice of the matters referred to in the certificate.
- 7.3. In a prosecution for a violation of this By-Law in which proof of the giving of the notice is made in accordance with Subsection 7.1, the onus is on the accused to prove that the accused is not the person named in the certificate or affidavit.

- 7.4. A notice given under Section 6 and purporting to be signed by a By-Law Enforcement Officer shall be:
- 7.4.1. Received in evidence by any court in the Province without proof of the signature.
 - 7.4.2. Proof, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, of the facts stated in the notice.
 - 7.4.3. In a prosecution for a violation of this By-Law, proof, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that the person named in the notice is the owner or occupier of the premises, building or other structure in respect of which the notice was given.

8. APPEAL

- 8.1. An owner or occupier of premises or a building or other structure who has been given notice under Section 6, other than a notice prepared and signed under Subsection 13.1, and who is not satisfied with the terms or conditions set out in the notice may appeal to the appropriate committee of Council by sending a notice of appeal by registered mail to the Clerk of the Town within 14 days after having been given the notice.
- 8.2. A notice that is not appealed within the time referred to in Subsection 8.1 shall be deemed to be confirmed and is final and binding on the owner or occupier who shall comply within the time and in the manner specified in the notice.
- 8.3. On an appeal, the committee of Council shall hold a hearing into the matter at which the owner or occupier bringing the appeal has a right to be heard and may be represented by counsel.
- 8.4. On an appeal with respect to notice under Section 6 arising out of a condition referred to in Subsection 5.2, the onus is on the Town to prove that the building or structure has become a hazard to the safety of the public by reason of being vacant or unoccupied.
- 8.5. On an appeal, the committee of Council may confirm, modify or rescind the notice or extend the time for complying with the notice.
- 8.6. The committee of Council shall provide a copy of its decision to the owner or occupier who brought the appeal within 14 days after making its decision.
- 8.7. If a notice that is confirmed or modified by a decision of the committee of Council under Subsection 8.5 is not appealed within the time referred to in Subsection 8.8, it shall be final and binding on the owner or occupier who shall comply within the time and in the manner specified in the notice.
- 8.8. The owner or occupier who is provided with a copy of the decision under Subsection 8.6 may appeal the decision to the judge of the Court of King's Bench of New Brunswick within 14 days after the copy of the decision was provided to the owner or occupier on the grounds that:

- 8.8.1. The procedure required to be followed by this Act was not followed.
- 8.8.2. The decision is unreasonable.
- 8.9. On an appeal, the judge of The Court of King's Bench of New Brunswick may confirm, modify or rescind the whole or any part of the decision of the committee of Council, and the decision of the judge under this subsection is not subject to appeal.
- 8.10. A notice that is confirmed or modified by a judge of the Court of King's Bench of New Brunswick under Subsection 8.9 shall be final and binding on the owner or occupier who shall comply within the time and in the manner specified in the notice.
- 8.11. An appeal does not prevent a further notice from being given under Section 6 or from being prepared and signed under Subsection 13.1 in relation to a condition referred to in the notice that is subject of the appeal, if there has been a change in the condition.

9. REGISTERING A NOTICE

- 9.1. In this section "land registration office" means a registry office established under the Registry Act or a land titles office established under the Land Titles Act.
- 9.2. A notice given under Section 6 may be registered in the appropriate land registration office and, on registration, any subsequent owner of the premises, building or other structure in respect of which the notice was given shall be deemed, for the purposes of Section 11 and 13, to have been given the notice on the day on which the notice was given under Section 6.
- 9.3. Section 44 of the Registry Act and Section 55 of the Land Titles Act do not apply to a registration under Subsection 9.2.
- 9.4. Within 30 days after the terms of a notice have been complied with or a debt due to the Town under Subsection 11.3 or 13.4 or due to the Minister of Finance under Subsection 17.3, as the case may be, is discharged, the Town shall provide a certificate in the form prescribed by regulation to that effect to the person to whom the notice was given under Section 6 or was deemed to have been given under Subsection 9.2, as the case may be, and the certificate shall operate as a discharge of the notice.
- 9.5. A person to whom a certificate is provided under Subsection 9.4 may register the certificate in the appropriate land registration of the certificate, the appropriate registrar of the land registration office shall cancel registration of the notice in respect of which the certificate was provided.

10. OFFENCE AND PENALTY FOR FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH A NOTICE

- 10.1. A person who fails to comply with the terms of a notice given under Section 6 an offence that is, subject to Subsections 9.2 and 9.3, punishable under Part 2 of the Provincial Offences Procedure Act as a category "F" offence.

10.2. Despite Subsection 56(6) of the Provincial Offences Procedure Act, if a person who is leasing a dwelling or dwelling unit to another person commits an offence under Subsection 10.1 in relation to a notice given under Section 6 with respect to the dwelling or dwelling unit, the minimum fine that may be imposed by a judge under that Act in respect of the offence is $1,000.00.

10.3. If an offence under Subsection 10.1 continues for more than one day:

10.3.1. If the offence was committed by a person in relation to a notice given under Section 6 with respect to a dwelling or dwelling unit the person is leasing to another person:

10.3.1.1. The minimum fine that maybe imposed is the sum of:

10.3.1.1.1. $1,000.00 and

10.3.1.1.2. The minimum fine set by the Provincial Offences Procedure Act for a category “F” offence multiplied by the number of days during which the offence continues after the first day.

10.3.1.2. The maximum fine that may be imposed is the maximum fine set by the Provincial Offences Procedure Act for a category “F” offence multiplied by the number of days during which the offence continues.

10.3.2. In any other case:

10.3.2.1. The minimum fine that may be imposed is the minimum fine set by the Provincial Offences Procedure Act for a category “F” offence multiplied by the number of days during which the offence continues.

10.3.2.2. The maximum fine that may be imposed is the maximum fine set by the Provincial Offence Procedure Act for a category “F” offence multiplied by the number of days during which the offence continues.

10.4. The conviction of a person under this section does not operate as a bar to further prosecution for the continued neglect or failure on the person’s part to comply with the provisions of this Part.

11. POWER TO CLEAN, REPAIR or DEMOLISH

11.1. If an owner or occupier does not comply with a final and binding notice given under Section 6 within the time set out in the notice, the Town may, rather than commencing proceedings in respect of the violation or in addition to doing so:

- 11.1.1. Cause the premises of that owner or occupier to be cleaned up or repaired if the notice arises out of a condition contrary to Subsection 5.1.
- 11.1.2. Cause the building or other structure of that owner or occupier to be repaired or demolished if the notice arises out of a condition contrary to Subsection 5.2.
- 11.1.3. Causes the building or other structure of that owner or occupier to be demolished if the notice arises out of a condition contrary to Subsection 5.3.
- 11.2. Subsection 11.1 does not apply in respect of a notice prepared and signed under Subsection 13.1.
- 11.3. The cost of carrying out any work set out in Subsection 11.1, including any associated charge or fee, is chargeable to the owner or occupier and becomes a debt due to the Town.
- 11.4. For the purposes of Subsection 11.1, the By-Law Enforcement Officer who gave the notice in respect of the premises, building or other structure and the authorized employees of the Town or other persons acting on behalf of the Town may, at all reasonable times, enter the premises, building or other structure in order to clean up or repair the premises or repair or demolish the building or other structure, as the case may be.

12. REPORT REQUIRED BEFORE DEMOLITION

- 12.1. The Town shall not proceed to act under Paragraph 11.1.3 unless it has a report from an architect, an engineer, a building inspector or the fire marshal that the building or structure is dilapidated or structurally unsound and that report is proof in the absence of evidence to the contrary that the building or structure is dilapidated or structurally unsound.

13. EMERGENCY

- 13.1. If, on inspection of the property under Section 144 of the Local Governance Act, the By-Law Enforcement officer referred to in that section is satisfied that there is nonconformity with the provisions of this Part to such an extent as to pose an emergency, the By-Law Enforcement Officer may prepare and sign a notice referred to in Section 6 requiring the owner or occupier of the premises, building, or other structure in respect of which the notice is prepared to immediately carry out work to terminate the danger.
- 13.2. After having prepared and signed a notice referred to in Subsection 12.1, the By-Law Enforcement Officer may, either before or after the notice is given, take any measures necessary to terminate the danger giving rise to the emergency, and, for this purpose, the By-Law Enforcement Officer who prepared the notice and the authorized employees of the Town or other persons acting on behalf of the Town may, at any time, enter the premises, building or other structure in respect of which the notice was prepared.

- 13.3. The Town or a person acting on its behalf is not liable to compensate an owner or occupier or any other person by reason of anything done by or on behalf of the Town in the reasonable exercise of its powers under this section.
- 13.4. The cost of taking measures under Subsection 13.2, including any associated charge or fee, is chargeable to the owner or occupier and becomes a debt due to the Town.
- 13.5. If the notice referred to in Subsection 13.1 was not given before measures were taken under Subsection 13.2 to terminate the danger, the By-Law Enforcement Officer shall give a copy of the notice as soon as the circumstances permit after the measures have been taken, and the copy of the notice shall have attached to it a statement by the By-Law Enforcement Officer describing the measures taken by the Town and providing details of the amount spent in taking the measures.
- 13.6. If the notice referred to in Subsection 13.1 was given before the measures were taken under Subsection 13.2, the By-Law Enforcement Officer shall give a copy of the statement referred to in Subsection 13.5 in the same manner as a notice given under Subsection 6.3 as soon as the circumstances permit after the measures have been taken.

14. OFFENCE AND PENALTY FOR OBSTRUCTION

- 14.1. No person shall refuse entry or obstruct or interfere with a By-Law Enforcement Officer, an authorized employee or other person referred to in Subsection 11.4 or 13.2 who under the authority of that subsection is entering or attempting to enter premises or a building or other structure.
- 14.2. A person who violates or fails to comply with Subsection 14.1 commits an offence that is subject to Subsection 14.3 and 14.4, punishable under Part 2 of the Provincial Offences Procedure Act as a category "F" offence.
- 14.3. Despite Subsection 56(6) of the Provincial Offences Procedure Act, if a person who is leasing a dwelling or dwelling unit to another person commits an offence under Subsection 14.2 in relation to the dwelling or dwelling unit, the minimum fine that may be imposed by a judge under that Act in respect of the offence is $1,000.00.
- 14.4. If an offence under Subsection 14.2 continues for more than one day:
 - 14.4.1. If the offence was committed by a person in relation to a dwelling or dwelling unit the person is leasing to another person:
 - 14.4.1.1. The minimum fine that may be imposed is the sum of:
 - 14.4.1.1.1. $1,000.00 and

14.4.1.1.2. The minimum fine set by the Provincial Offences Procedure Act for a category “F” offence multiplied by the number of days during which the offence continues after the first day.

14.4.1.1.3. The maximum fine that may be imposed is the maximum fine set by the Provincial Offences Procedure Act for a category “F” offence multiplied by the number of days during which the offence continues.

14.4.2. In any other case:

14.4.2.1. The minimum fine that may be imposed is the minimum fine set by the Provincial Offences Procedure Act for a category “F” offence multiplied by the number of days during which the offence continues.

14.4.2.2. The maximum fine that may be imposed is the maximum fine set by the Provincial Offences Procedure Act for a category “F” offence multiplied by the number of days during which the offence continues.

15. RECOVERY OF THE TOWN'S COST – FILING OF CERTIFICATE

15.1. If the cost of carrying out work or the cost of taking measures becomes a debt due to the Town under Subsection 11.3 or 13.4, an officer of the Town may issue a certificate stating the amount of the debt due and the name of the owner or occupier from whom the debt is due.

15.2. A certificate issued under Subsection 14.1 may be filed in The Court of King's Bench of New Brunswick and the filed certificate shall be entered and recorded in the Court and may then be enforced as a judgement obtained in the Court by the Town against the person named in the certificate for a debt in the amount specified in the certificate.

15.3. All reasonable costs and charges associated with filing, entering and recording a certificate under Subsection 14.2 may be recovered as if the amount had been included in the certificate.

16. LIEN

16.1. Despite Subsection 72(2) of the Workers' Compensation Act, the cost of carrying out work under Subsection 11.1 or of taking measures under Subsection 13.2, as the case may be, and all reasonable costs and charges associated with filing, entering and recording a certificate under Section 15 shall, until they are paid, form a lien on the real property in respect of which the work is carried out or the measures are taken in priority to every claim, privilege, lien or other encumbrance, whenever created, subject only to taxes levied under the Real Property Tax Act and to a special lien under Subsection 117(9) of the Local Governance Act.

16.2. The lien in Subsection 16.1:

16.2.1. Attaches when the work under Subsection 11.1 begins or the measures under Subsection 13.2 begin, as the case may be, and does not require registering or filing any document or giving notice to any person to create or preserve it.

16.2.2. Is not defeated by a change in the ownership of the real property.

16.3. A mortgagee, judgement creditor or other person having a claim, privilege, lien or other encumbrance on or against the real property to which a lien under Subsection 16.1 is attached:

16.3.1. May pay the amount of the lien.

16.3.2. May add the amount to the person's mortgage, judgement or other security.

16.3.3. Has the same rights and remedies for the amount that are contained in the person's security.

17. DEBTS PAID BY THE MINISTER OF FINANCE AND TREASURY BOARD

17.1. If a debt due to the Town under Subsection 11.3 or 13.4 remains unpaid in whole or in part and the Minister of Finance is of the opinion that the Town has made reasonable efforts to recover the unpaid amount, the Minister of Finance shall, if the Town requests the Minister to do so before December 31 in any year, pay to the Town the following amounts in the following year:

17.1.1. The unpaid amount of the debt.

17.1.2. Interest on the unpaid amount of the debt:

17.1.2.1. Calculated at the same rate that is applied in determining the amount of a penalty under Subsection 10(3) of the Real Property Tax Act.

17.1.2.2. Accruing from the day the Town complete the work or measures in respect of which the debt arose to the day the Town makes a request under this subsection for payment in respect of the debt.

17.2. The Town shall make a request under Subsection 17.1 by submitting to the Minister of Finance a statement of the expenditures of the Town that gave rise to the debt.

17.3. Subject to subsection 17.4, if a debt due to the Town under Subsection 11.3 or 13.4 in relation to work carried out or measures taken with respect to premises or a building or other structure remains unpaid, in whole or in part, by the person liable to pay the debt and the Minister of Finance has made a payment under Subsection 17.1 in respect of the debt:

17.3.1. Any part of the debt that remains unpaid by the person liable to pay the debt becomes a debt due to the Minister of Finance.

17.3.2. The Minister of Finance shall collect the following amounts from the owner of the premises, building or other structure in the same manner that taxes on real property are collected under the Real Property Tax Act:

17.3.2.1. Any part of the debt under Subsection 11.3 and 13.4 that remains unpaid by the person liable to pay the debt.

17.3.2.2. Interest on the unpaid part of the debt.

17.3.2.2.1. Calculated at the same rate as is applied in determining the amount of a penalty under Subsection 10(3) of the Real Property Tax Act.

17.3.2.2.2. Accruing from the day Town completes the work or measures in respect of which the debt arose to the day the Town makes a request under Subsection 17.1 for payment in respect of the debt.

17.4. Subject to Subsections 17.5 and 17.6, for the purposes of Subsection 17.3, the following provisions of the Real Property Tax Act apply with the necessary modifications:

17.4.1. Section 7.

17.4.2. Section 10, except for Subsection (2).

17.4.3. Section 11.

17.4.4. Section 12.

17.4.5. Sections 13 to 16.

17.4.6. Sections 19 to 25.

17.5. If the amounts referred to in Paragraph 17.3.2 remain unpaid, those amounts and any penalties added to them under Subsection 17.4 constitutes a lien on the real property in respect of which the work was carried out or the measures were taken, and the lien ranks equally with a lien under Subsection 11(1) of the Real Property Tax Act.

17.6. If the real property is sold under any order of foreclosure, seizure and sale, execution or other legal process or a power of sale under a debenture or mortgage or under Subsection 44(1) if the Property Act, the amount of a lien referred to in Subsection 17.5 constitutes a change on the proceeds that ranks equally with a charge under Subsection 11(1) of the Real property Tax Act.

18. SEVERABILITY

18.1. If any part of this By-Law shall be held to be invalid, such part shall be deemed severable and invalidity thereof shall not affect the remaining parts of this By-Law.

19. REPEAL OF PREVIOUS BY-LAW

19.1. The Town of Saint Andrews By-Law No. 19-04, Respecting Dangerous or Unsightly Premises in the Town of Saint Andrews consolidated with all amendments, are repealed on the same coming into force of this By-Law.

19.2. The repeal of said By-Law No. 19-04, Respecting Dangerous or Unsightly Premises in the Town of Saint Andrews consolidated with all amendments shall not affect any penalty, forfeiture, or liability incurred before such repeal or any proceeding for enforcing the same completed or pending at the time of repeal, nor shall it repeal or disturb, invalidate, or prejudicially affect any matter or thing whatsoever completed, existing, or pending at the time of repeal.
